

TECHNICAL AND MANAGEMENT APPROACH

In this section Respondent will describe their technical and management approach to execution of this project. This section will include the following: (a) Project Management Approach, (b) Quality Assurance and Validation, (c) Business Analysis and Solutions Development (if relevant to the Scope), and (d) Project Closeout Process. Responses to Scope 1B should also include the following: (ae) the configuration and customization process for a typical implementation, (bf) the roles and responsibilities the vendor will have during an implementation, (eg) the roles and responsibilities the customer will have during an implementation, and (dh) provide a sample of a typical project implementation plan.

B.2.1 For each system listed, describe any off-the shelf or pre-existing integration of your product with the system, including features relevant to the integration requirements listed in Section A.1.5.1 Integration of the Requirements Spreadsheet from Attachment A - System Functional and Technical Requirements \(Scope 1A\)~~section~~ Error! Reference source not found. Describe any other features that may be of interest to us.