

Name

Jean O'Reilly

Your Comment

I definitely want Option 4. Across the country, 2000 public power utilities serve almost 15% of Americans, and offer 13% cheaper rates and 47% shorter outage times than private utilities.

It's time to invest in fiber optics and solar energy. We need an electric power board to give the people of Long Island a world class grid that will reduce outages and save us all money.