

Name

Margaret Maher

Your Comment

First of all we need public utilities. Not for profit utilities. The price of living on Long Island is outrageous. These are basic human rights and should be affordable for all. As a future grandmother i was clean water and sustainable green power not fossil fuels. Thank you.