

Name

Ross Burns

---

Your Comment

PSEG Long Island has done as outstanding job in both managing the power grid and engaging the community. Nowhere else have I seen a company go so far above and beyond to do right by the customers and the community. I urge LIPA to consider all factors when making this decision and to realize that PSEG Long Island has handled storms better than any company in the past. The company should not be judged by a single mishap, but rather by the myriad other instances of outstanding performance.