

Name

Shoshana Hershkowitz

---

Your Comment

As a concerned citizen, I believe that we need a public power utility system. The mismanagement that occurred during Isaias reaffirms that something must change to better serve Long Island. A public system would keep LIPA accountable to the people it serves. Public accountability is a crucial part of addressing the issues we've seen in mismanagement. A public utility system should be affordable, accountable to the taxpayers, and address equity and environmental justice on Long Island.