Independence

Independence

Our professional standards and other regulatory requirements specify that we are required to communicate to you in writing, at least annually, all relationships between our firm, or any affiliates of the firm, and LIPA and persons in a financial reporting oversight role at LIPA, which may reasonably be thought to bear on independence. In addition to the professional services disclosed in the previous slides, we are not aware of any relationships between our firm and LIPA and persons in a financial reporting oversight role at LIPA. In connection with our audit of LIPA, KPMG and relevant KPMG professionals have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, as that term is defined by the professional standards.

We also bring to your attention that LIPA does pay for an annual subscription to KPMG's Accounting Research Online (ARO) tool. KPMG's ARO tool provides easy access to a full range of authoritative accounting and financial reporting literature. The cost of the subscription is approximately $2,230 per year and is permissible under professional standards. We also perform word processing services in connection with the preparation of the Data Collection Form for the Single Audit.

Inquiries

Is the Finance and Audit Committee aware of:

- Matters relevant to the audit, including, but not limited to, violations or possible violations of laws or regulations?
- Any significant communications with regulators?
- Any developments in financial reporting, laws, accounting standards, corporate governance, and other related matters, and the effect of such developments on, for example, the overall presentation, structure, and content of the basic financial statements, including the following:
 - The relevance, reliability, comparability, and understandability of the information presented in the financial statements
 - Whether all required information has been included in the basic financial statements, and whether such information has been appropriately classified, aggregated or disaggregated, and presented?

Does the Finance and Audit Committee have knowledge of:

- Fraud, alleged fraud, or suspected fraud affecting LIPA?
 - If so, have the instances been appropriately addressed and how have they been addressed?
