

Kyle Strober

Executive Director, Association for a Better Long Island

- The Association for a Better Long Island is nonprofit organization that promotes and encourages the role of real estate and strengthening the regional economy, enhancing Long Island's competitive position in a global economy.
- Prior to serving as ABLI's Executive Director, Mr. Strober was Long Island's regional director for U.S. Senator Charles E. Schumer.
- As Regional Director, Strober was responsible for any and all issues affecting the Long Island region. His wide range of issues included; the Bethpage plume, LIPA, LIRR, MacArthur Airport, major redevelopment projects, sewers & wastewater treatment facilities, FAA helicopter regulations, commercial & recreational fishing industries, the prescription drug epidemic and post office closures.
- He earned a bachelor's degree in History from the University of Michigan - Ann Arbor.