

Robyn Fellrath

Special Assistant to the CEO

Robyn Fellrath is LIPA's Special Assistant to the CEO, joining LIPA in October of 2025. Her responsibilities include serving as a trusted advisor and strategic partner to the CEO, ensuring seamless coordination, efficient operations, and alignment with LIPA's strategic priorities. This role provides executive-level guidance, manages high-priority initiatives, and facilitates communication across the organization.

Prior to joining LIPA, Ms. Fellrath served as Regional Director of the Workforce Development Institute (WDI). Ms. Fellrath has also held various positions in state and local government, including Director of Downstate Labor Affairs for the New York State Department of Labor (DOL), District Director at the New York State Senate, and Chief of Staff at the Suffolk County Legislature.

Ms. Fellrath serves on the Board of the Child Care Council of Suffolk and is a member of the Executive Board of the non-profit New Hour for Women and Children, LI. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from SUNY Geneseo and is currently pursuing a Master of Business Administration degree at SUNY Stony Brook University.
